

DU to start the admission process from 1st July after scrapping of FYUP | 1

It is likely that the DU admission Process will commence on 1st July and the cut-offs list will be released by 30th late-evening on the website.

New Delhi: Fresh admissions for the 2014-15 academic session in Delhi University is likely to commence from Tuesday with the varsity today formally scrapping the controversial four-year undergraduate programme (FYUP) even as uncertainty continued to plague B.Tech students.

A day after Vice Chancellor Dinesh Singh announced roll back of the FYUP, the Academic and Executive Councils of the university passed a resolution to implement the three-year structure from the new academic session.

In the Academic Council meeting, 65 members voted in favour of the three-year course while six dissented. In the Executive Council meeting 16 supported the changeover while two opposed, EC member Abha Dev Habib said.
