

Content Policy

This is a personal blog written and edited by me, Manas Sharma. The views and opinions expressed on this blog are solely those of me, and they do not represent in any way those of my affiliations or sponsors.

Comment Policy

Comments are welcome on my blog. I encourage you to provide me feedback on my posts. I usually approve all the comments and will only delete them if they are irrelevant to the post or are spams.

Image Credits

Some images that I have posted are mine while some are not. In the latter case I always try to provide credits. If you come across an image that has not been properly credited, please let me know so that I can make the necessary adjustments.

(And if you are the owner of an image/photo that was improperly credited by me, I apologize!)

If you would like to use an image or a photo of my creation, please contact me about it first, especially if it contains people or subjects of personal nature.

Endorsements, Sponsorships, and Giveaways

This blog occasionally endorses businesses and products. Sometimes I receive compensation or commission for the products bought from the links given on my site. Though I would try to mention if I am receiving any rewards for the product I am reviewing or endorsing in the post itself, I may sometimes forget to mention it.

Amazon Associate Disclosure

I am a participant in the Amazon Services LLC Associates Program, an affiliate advertising program designed to provide a means for sites to earn advertising fees by advertising and linking to Amazon.com. In other words, if you click on the link and purchase the item, I will receive an affiliate commission. Regardless, I only recommend products or services I use personally and believe will add value to my readers.
